Card.

I desire to call the attention of the public of Carson and vicinity to the fact that I have recently sold out my entire stock of drugs and the good will of the business to Mr. A. E. Harris, who will henceforth conduct said business, known as the "City Drug Store," opposite the Postoffice. I desire to thank the general public for their generous patronage in the past; and I bespeak for Mr. Harris a continuation of the same, believing that it will be to your mutual advantage.

I am, respectfully,
W. H. CHEDIC.

Examinations.

The public examinations of the Carson Public Schools, for the year 1891, will take place as follows:

Friday, June 26, Miss Brumsey's class.

Monday, June 27, Miss Bardenwerper's class.

Respectfully,
H. H. Howe.

Geo. Irwin has bought out the cigar stand formerly occupied by Louis Arison. Geo. is good-natured enough to make a success of it.

Congressman Bartine has been invited to speak in Ogden where the Republicans of Utah will meet shortly to organize their party on a solid basis.

Jim Townsend thinks that it is no great trick to pack a keg of beer up Mt. Davidson and back. Certainly not so great as packing even a half keg through Lundy past the Mono Index office.

Uncle Sam is not losing anything on making small changes. The metal in a five-cent nickel piece is worth about half a cent, and fifteen cents will purchase copper enough to make $2 worth of cents.

The Virginia Fourth of July committee has refused to hang up a purse to be contested for by the Virginia and Carson ball clubs. The proposed purse of $150 would have been very acceptable to the Emporiums of Carson.

Trout are plentiful in the Truckee and fishermen are catching a good many Eastern brook trout which were planted in the river two years ago. These fish are not so large as the salmon trout, but they are a better table fish.

A young lady teacher of Concordia, Kan., has lost her position because she sent to another town for a spring hat. This is of course rough on the lady but no woman is fit to teach school who don't know the first principle of home patronage.

Harry Green, fifteen years old while beating his way on a freight car from Sacramento to Reno, dropped into a culvert. His right leg was broken in two places, and the instep on his left foot fractured, and wounds were received on his head. His parents live in Oakland.

The premium list of the seventh annual fair of Nevada State Agriculture Society has been issued from the State Printing Office at Carson, and is now ready for distribution. The fair begins Monday September 21st, and will continue during the week. The premiums and purses aggregate over $10,000.

The White Pine News says: A Steptoe Valley rancher got a marriage license last week and rushed around town vigorously to secure a bride to lead to the altar, but none of the fair ones would consent to share his joys and sorrows, and he returned home a sadder, but not wiser old fool.

SHOOTING AT CANDELARIA.

A Woman Said to be at the Bottom of the Row.

CANDELARIA, Nev., June 24th.—About 12:15 P. M. today, W. W. Booth shot George M. Beatty three times. One of the wounds will probably prove fatal. It seems that Booth's wife left him yesterday. She went away on the train while Booth was in Hawthorne. Booth blamed Beatty for the trouble. He went into the store where Beatty is bookkeeper and said: "Here is five dollars I owe you," and then pulled his pistol and began firing without any further warning. He hit Beatty in the side of the neck with the first shot, and with the next one in his leg above the knee. At the third shot Booth put the pistol against Beatty's groin and fired. That wound will probably prove fatal. Booth is out under $4000 bonds.

ANOTHER DISPATCH.

RENO, Nev., June 24th.—A Candelaria special to the Gazette says: Shortly after 12 o'clock today four or five shots fired in rapid succession in the Pacific Borax Company's store attracted a crowd. As the first citizens arrived, Geo. M. Beatty, bookkeeper of the firm, fell in a faint from loss of blood from three wounds—one in the groin, which will prove fatal. It being the noonhour Beatty was alone, when W. W. Booth entered, and drawing a pistol commenced shooting. The origin of the trouble was the alleged intimacy of Beatty with Mrs. Booth. Beatty is rapidly sinking at this time. Beatty was resting at last accounts and has an even chance for his life.

Albertis Dale.

Albertis Dale, who was buried in this city on Wednesday, was the eldest son of Mrs. Dale, who runs the Eureka Mill boarding house near Empire. He died of apoplexy. He was twenty-nine years of age, and when death overtook him he was suddenly picking blackberries near Santa Rosa, Cal. He was employed on his mother's fruit ranch at the time of his death, and was much esteemed in the community where he lived. His remains were placed in the Masonic cemetery alongside his father's. Rev. J. F. Holmes officiated, and the pall bearers were Messrs. Longabaugh, Kinny, Logan, Colburn, McCullough and Cutts.

July 4th.

James Wiggins will give a grand ball at his dance hall in Empire on the night of the Fourth. An entirely new line of entertainment will be pursued; fireworks displayed at regular intervals, and a full dance orchestra engaged for the occasion. Plenty of stable room for teams, and Jim will endeavor to entertain all visitors.

Economy in Horseshoes.

A horseshoe has been patented in Canada which is provided with removable calks. These calks are easily removable, and when they require sharpening calks may be put on in about five minutes. Two sets are kept on hand, one sharp and the other dull; this effects a great saving. The shoe has tapered dovetail recesses in which the tapered, shank of the calk fits.

No Work.

Publisher—I say Bill, is there any job work on the hook?

Job Printer—Nary a job in here for over two weeks. What shall I do?

Publisher—Here look over the job work of that rotten concern across the way and see how many typographical errors you can find, for you have to do something to keep yourself busy.

Attempted Suicide.

About 7 o'clock last evening Mrs. John Scott whose husband is proprietor of a saloon on King St. took a dose of laudanum with suicidal intent. Physicians were immediately summoned and the stomach pump applied. At last accounts she was resting easy. She was seen crying in the afternoon and it is thought some grievance induced her to commit the act.

The Dirigo.

Frank Jellerson, proprietor of the above named hotel at Glenbrook, Lake Tahoe, was in Carson yesterday. He returned in the afternoon with a two-horse covered rig which will be used in conveying guests from the landing to his hotel. The Dirigo is crowded nearly all the time, and people who contemplate stopping there on the Fourth, should engage rooms in advance.

Tom Calvert of the Half Way House sent the APPEAL some tame rye nearly seven feet high cultivated without irrigation.
